Are you following? Have you any particular reason for being so incredulous?” The harpooner looked at me fixedly for some moments before answering, struck his broad forehead with his hand (a habit of his), as if to collect himself, and said at last, “Perhaps I have, Mr. Ahab, you, a whaler by profession, familiarised with all the great marine mammalia—You ought to be the last to doubt under the sea. HAVE YOU ANY PARTICULAR REASON FOR BEING SO INGREDULOUS?” THE HARPOONER LOOKED AT ME FIXEDLY FOR SOME MOMENTS BEFORE ANSWERING, STRUCK HIS BROAD FOREHEAD WITH HIS HAND (A HABIT OF HIS), AS IF TO COLLECT HIMSELF, AND SAID AT LAST, “PERHAPS I HAVE, MR. A HAB, YOU, A WHALER BY PROFESSION, FAMILIARISED WITH ALL THE GREAT MARINE MAMMALIA—YOU OUGHT TO BE THE LAST TO DOUBT UNDER THE SEA.”

When activating the “small caps” option, lowercase letters will be transformed in small capitals and lining figures in oldstyle figures. You can also access the “all small caps” option on the OpenType panel that will also transform uppercase letters. The height and spacing of the punctuation is automatically adapted when you select the “all caps” or “small caps” option.

Lowercase in small caps

Monsieur
le Président

MONSIEUR
LE PRÉSIDENT

“All small caps” option

Monsieur
le Président

MONSIEUR

Case sensitive punctuation

¿ No ? (Yes)
« Peut-être »

¿ NO ? (YES)
« PEUT-ÊTRE »

An alternate slashed zero is available for all sets.
The default setting for figures is the lining set.
Tabular figures have an identical width
and are useful for the composition of charts.
You can access the others sets on the OpenType panel. Height corrected currency and mathematical symbols are automatically activated on all sets of figures.
